COMMON COUNCIL RESOLUTION PRESENTED TO CREW OF ENGINE COMPANY 6 for Finding a Missing Child

WHEN:* 10:00 am, Thursday, JUNE 8, 2006

WHERE:* ENGINE COMPANY 6, 1693 N. FRANKLIN PL. (FRANKLIN PL. & BRADY ST.)

DETAILS: Alderman Michael D ' Amato and Fire Chief William Wentlandt will formally present the members of Engine Company 6 with a commendatory Common Council resolution for their actions in helping to find a missing young man on April 24, 2006. The boy 's mother contacted Engine Company 6 in the morning and gave a description of him to the crew. She stated her son had been missing for four days and she believed he was still in the area. The alert firefighters saw a young man matching his description while returning from a run and confirmed it was he. The firefighters assisted the young man back to the firehouse where they provided him with a meal and notified the police department. The actions of these firefighters are notable; facilitating the return of a child reported missing by his mother.
